COOLIDGE FORMALLY LAUNCHES ECONOMY PROGRAM OF '26-'27

Budget Director Requests
Department Heads to Meet June 22

Washington, June 16—President Coolidge today formally launched his 1926-1927 economy program, aimed at drastic cost cutting policies in government, which may be reflected in tax reduction in the sixty ninth congress.

At the president's direction, department heads were requested by Budget Director H. M. Lord to attend the annual meeting of the government's business organization on June 22.

Plans to secure greater efficiency and economy for the coming two years, will be outlined, according to Lord.

Coincident with the calling of the economy session, came indications of a clash in congress between the administration and advocates of tax reduction who feel government revenue can be cut more than $500,000,000.

While secretary of the treasury will submit no specific plan to congress and will avoid an open break on new legislation, he opposes revenue reduction exceeding $300,000,000. A greater cut would force the government to borrow money to meet expenses, experts said.

The treasury revealed that the surplus for 1926 will be approximately $250,000,000, compared to the preliminary $373,700,000 estimate.

Partially balancing this loss, however, was the probability that the 1925 surplus will exceed the estimate of $67,000,000 by $50,000,000.

The treasury is against a revenue cut greater than the surplus Mellon also opposes applying payments on foreign debts directly to tax reduction, holding that it is better economy to reach taxes indirectly by applying payments to the public debt. A charge of treasury policy would require an amendment to the law.

If taxes are reduced, rates must be levied so scientifically that the new bill will eventually increase revenue, officials said.

Mellon believes a cut in surtaxes to 15 or 25 percent will accomplish this end. Officials pointed out that in 1916 under low taxation there were 2,449 incomes of over $200,000 reported; in 1921 at the maximum tax period the number was 472, while in 1923, a lower tax rates it went to 1,193.

The government reduced its operating expenses by $120,665,000, from July 1, 1924 to June 14, compared to the same period of 1923-1924. Ordinary expenses were $7,551,000 higher, but cut being due to reduced public interest.

The agricultural department increased its expenditures $26,528,000; the navy $14,971,000 and the war department $9,848,000. Led by the veterans bureau with $22,371,000, five departments cut expenses.

President Coolidge is expected to ask department heads to use the pruning knife to get under the $3,267,000,000 estimated costs for 1926 appropriations for which have already been made.

The president will fix a maximum ordinance expenditure for the government in 1927. The figure for 1926 was $1,000,000,000. Budget officials said ordinary expenses for 1927 probably would exceed 1926 by $50,000,000.

Government revenues under the 1924 revenue act will be higher than expected. Receipts for eleven and a half months were $1,420,000,000 with not all the estimated $3,000,000,000 June collection included. Income tax receipts will exceed the $1,660,000,000 estimate.

ATTORNEYS AMONG WITNESSES NAMED J IN KIRBY HEARING

Cleveland, O., June 16—Eugene Quigley and Amos Burt Thompson, Cleveland lawyers, were among the witnesses scheduled for examination in the trial of Josiah Kirby, former head of the Cleveland Discount Company on charges of embezzlement and larceny in common pleas court here today.

Details of how the concern was operated, methods of stock selling and the like were laid before the jury yesterday.

That the case will go to a jury decision was made certain yesterday when Judge Wolf presiding, held that shares of stock were "things of value" under the statutes of Ohio and hence could be embezzled.

Defense attorneys had moved to quash the indictment upon the grounds that they were not "things of value" within the purview of the law.

ROTARY PRESIDENT FLAYS INTOLERANCE AT OPENING SESSION

Urges Unselfish Service As
Panacea For World Ills At
Cleveland Meeting

Cleveland, O., June 16—What was construed as a direct reference to the Ku Klux Klan was contained in the presidential address of Everett W. Hill, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, opening the business sessions of the sixteenth annual convention of the Rotary International here today.

"The spirit of intolerance," Hill said, "has recently gripped the nations and successfully defied the exorcism of all true charity. Rising from dust wherein it has reposed since the expiration of the middle ages, it has come forth once more to vex the souls of men. For four years, one half of the world's population was urged to hate, to main, to kill. We find in the ghastly backwash of that tragic era the spirit of repression, of passion, of revenge."

"No matter how free may be the charter of a nation, it is no longer easy to gain a respectful hearing. No longer is the right of conscience freely conceded, no longer are the innate rights of men unchallenged. Into the markets and forum we have transplanted the bitterness of the camp and refuse too often to concede the right to a contrary opinion."

Hill urged the practice of "unselfish service" as the panacea for the ills suffered from a world drunk with hate and revenge.

Delegates from overseas Rotary clubs were presented from the platform at the first session today. There are thirty nations represented in the list of delegates.

The annual reports of the secretary and treasurer were presented and approved.

At noon, luncheons in honor of Rotary district governors finishing their terms of office and for those who have been nominated for this office were held.

WHERE, O WHERE IS LITTLE DOG?

C. R. Hinkle, North Galloway Street, whose automobile was crushed under the falling roof of the Davis Oil Company filling station, Main and Galloway Streets, when it was demolished by a gas explosion Sunday, is looking for the little fox terrier that was in the car at the time of the blast.

The dog was in the tonneau of the car at the time of the explosion and when the car was crushed it was believed the dog was killed. When the wreckage of the station was cleared away however, the dog could not be found. Hinkle now believes the dog jumped or was blown from the machine and may be still running. He is anxious for information concerning the animal.

will be rebuilt at its present location immediately. The same type of station will be constructed with the exception of a basement, where the explosion occurred. The same business policy will be used.

Sale of gasoline and oil will continue this week, since neither the pumps nor tanks underground were damaged, it is said.

The condition of Fremont Clark, attendant at the filling station, who is in Espey Hospital suffering from painful burns received when the blast demolished the station, was reported as much improved Tuesday.

TRAIN DERAILED WHEN ENGINE STRIKES RAIL SPLIT BY LIGHTNING

Victims Were On Way To Sail for Germany—Two
Coaches Leave Tracks in Midst of Heavy Storm
—Relief Rushed To Scene.

Hackettstown, N. J., June 16.—Twelve persons were killed and approximately fifty injured, several of them perhaps fatally, when a special five car train on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, speeding from Chicago to Hoboken, N. J., was derailed at Rockport, three miles from here, early today.

The victims were on their way to New York to sail this afternoon on the Republic, of the United States line, for Bremen, Germany.

The train struck a rail at Rockport that had been split by lightning an hour before. The engine and the two front coaches leaped the rails. The other three coaches remained on the tracks.

Relief trains, bearing doctors, nurses and all necessary paraphernalia were rushed to the scene from Dover, Hackettstown, Washington, N. J., and Easton, Pa.

The greatest confusion prevailed at the scene when the rescue workers arrived. Women were screaming, men were trying to quiet them and some of the most seriously injured begged the doctors to let them die.

Most of the victims were asleep when the accident occurred, at 3:30 o'clock this morning.

The first eye witness story of the fatal crash was given International News Service by Miss Mabel White, daughter of Chief of Police L. C. White of Hackettstown, and one of the first to arrive at the scene.

"The scene was pitiable," she said. "Women, some of whom could not talk English, were going about in circles, wringing their hands and crying as if their hearts would break."

"Big, strong men, their husbands or friends, went about, patting them on the shoulders and trying to comfort them."

"One woman, whose child, a girl, was scalded to death, was inconsolable."

"The two front coaches and the engine had gone off the track. The windows of these coaches, both steel, by the way, were shattered and many of the injured were inside groaning. They were being treated by those who first got to the scene."

"I counted ten dead. Most of the dead were scalded as well as injured in the wreck."

"I had the presence of mind to take with me from Hackettstown a bottle of olive oil. I went through one of the windows of the overturned coaches and applied the oil to the burns of the injured."

"The injured were in terrible pain. They screamed and groaned. Passengers from the three coaches that remained on the tracks did all they could to help the injured. But as they were without medicine or bandages they were unable to give much assistance until after the first of the nurses and doctors arrived."

The wrecked train, according to some of the passengers was making fast time when the accident occurred.

One doctor said at 9:45 this morning that the death list would be greatly increased from twelve later, as some of the injured were in a critical condition.

The engineer of the train was killed outright. The conductor was so badly hurt it is feared he will die.

The first two coaches were filled with steam immediately after the impact, scalding many of the passengers.

The engine ploughed through the sand and dirt for thirty feet after it struck the switch. The two coaches immediately behind, piled up on top of the engine.

The killed included the engineer, fireman and brakeman of the train and a man, a woman and a child, passengers in the first car.

There were 182 passengers on the train.

The first coach piled on top of the engine, the second coach followed the first and lay crosswise on top of the heap and the third car, a sleeper, smashed into the wreckage ahead.

The wreck occurred during the height of the storm. Rain was pouring down. Lightning flashed and thunder boomed. Then came the smash.

At daylight, steam still poured from the broken pipes of the engine. Railroad workers and volunteer rescue workers searched among the wreckage for hours.

News of the accident spread rapidly.

THREE REASONS ARE GIVEN FOR WRECK

Newark, N. J., June 16.—Three reasons for the fatal wreck on the Lackawanna railroad at Rockport, N. J., today, were advanced in a tentative report made by Robert White, general superintendent of the road to the state board of public utilities.

They were:

- 1.—That lightning struck the rails.
- 2.—That sand and debris were washed on the tracks by heavy rain.
- 3.—That the roadbed had been washed out.

White's preliminary report gave the number of dead as three, the injured at seventy.

STEVE PHILLIPS IS GIVEN BOUQUET BY FINDLAY, O., WRITER

Steve Phillips, Xenia race horse starter, won commendation in a Findlay, Ohio paper following his capable handling of the racing events on the shortship circuit there last week. The article follows:

"It is generally admitted that the toughest jobs at a race meeting are those of the starting judge, the presiding judge and judges of the finish. Stephen G. Phillips, of Xenia, O., who has been starting horses for seven or eight years has always made a strong impression in Findlay in the way he gets his fields away, as well as in all other cities of the circuit and whenever he rings the gong.

"To please all the spectators all the time is well nigh an impossible task, but 'Steve' Phillips comes as close to doing that very thing as any judge who has ever worked races here.

"One reason for this is that he tolerates no 'monkey business' and all drivers, whether of grand circuit reputation or not, look alike to him when they score down. He plays the game squarely and horsemen everywhere respect him.

"Throughout the week, exceptionally large fields have featured, but not once has Judge Phillips failed to get them away to the satisfaction of all fair-minded spectators. He believes in 'fair play' and that is why he can return every year to the same cities of the short ship circuit."

LEONARD MAY COME OUT OF RETIREMENT TO MEET MICKEY WALKER IN AUGUST IS LEARNED

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, June 16—Formal announcement was expected within a matter of weeks today that Benny Leonard has thought better of his hasty retirement from the wholesale and retail glove business following a series of protracted conferences between Jack Kearns and Billy Gibson.

It was thought that the deliberations of these great minds had to do with a proposed Dempsey-Tunney meeting but it developed today that the subject under discussion was a bout between Leonard and Mickey Walker in August. Gibson, it is understood, has virtually given his word that Leonard will play along with the time comes. While non-active professionally for almost a year, Benny has kept himself in condition at his gymnasium where the tired business man may get his rest by running twenty laps around the track. The young man is said to be as sound physically as ever he was.

His mother, given credit in the record books for the decision over Benny that prompted his retirement from the lightweight championship and the ring in general, is also alleged to have been won over to the proposition. She can buy a lot of mental serenity with the quarter of a million that is believed will fall in Leonard's lap as a result of the deal.

The bout, next to the proposed Wills-Tunney transaction, is planned as the "big shot" of the 1925 outdoor season. It will fill any promoter with joy and the seats with cash customers.

It is such a form-fitting transaction, that, apparently Messrs. Kearns and Gibson have wasted little thought on Leonard's attitude.

"He's a business man," Kearns said today with a significant wink.

He and Gibson, it seems, are so far ahead of the proposition that they are haggling over the division of the purse. Both think they are entitled to the biggest drag and only a gradual modification of this laudable idea will bring them to an amicable conclusion.

This will probably take the form of a fifty-fifty split of approximately a half million dollars.

Plans to re-locate the grounds on the site of the new park of the Xenia Recreation Association in the Dadds Addition, were set aside and authorization of the board of education was given to re-build the grounds at the present site.

The Eastwood Quoit Club is a member of the Gem City Quoit League, composed of six teams, and is runnerup to the leading Riverdale team in the league.

The friendly match will be staged Friday preparatory to laying plans for a formal opening of the grounds in the near future.

The match is scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock. All members of the club are asked to be present for the match.

MODISH MITZI—Mitzi Takes Her First Swim of the Season

By JAY V. JAY

Polly is our little family pessimist. She is very warm and comfortable at the moment and she is wondering whether her curiosity as to the probable coldness of the water is strong enough to call for action. Her suit is of printed gingham and follows the fashion by having godets in the skirt.

Eleanor has reached the first float and is deciding that she won't go any farther. Not of course because the water is cold—she is prepared to be quite scornful of Polly—but because this is a good vantage point from which to display her bathing suit of jade green charmeuse with its circular skirt with deep black border.

Adelaide is being Oriental this season. It's very likely that she will spend the entire summer without swimming at all because her beach coat is so striking. It is made of rubberized green silk and is cut like a Chinese coat. Her Japanese parasol is obviously the proper accessory.

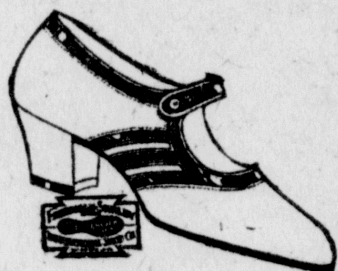

Mitzi believes in being extreme. Her suit is the extreme of boyishness being a two-piece suit with trunks and a belt. Her beach cape and cap are the extreme of brilliance being made of a flowered silk, rubberized. She has just been extremely brave and taken her first plunge.

Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts of America, will hold its weekly meeting Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Joseph Foody Post, American Legion rooms. It is announced by Scoutmaster R. H. Kingsbury. Regular business will be transacted. It is also announced that Troop No. 2 will hold a meeting at the Legion rooms Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock.

BAND WILL PLAY

Adena, June 16—The high school band will give a series of Saturday evening open air concerts during the summer months.

ANTIOCH SWIMMING STARS TO HOLD FIRST ANNUAL AQUATIC MEET

Florence Woodruff, Louisiana Fowler Group of Antioch Students Robert Rope, Arthur DuBois

Antioch College, Yellow Springs, will hold its first annual water carnival at the Morton Grinnell Park, Grinnell Mills, south of Yellow Springs, Wednesday.

Both men and women students will compete in the program of events on the half-mile swimming course offered at the newly established park. Several of these are holders of swimming championships and medals, which heightens interest in the water sports.

Arthur "Duke" DuBois, shown above, won the New England Y. M. C. A. championship in 1921 and again in 1923 and was also an A. A. U. champion of Worcester County, Mass. Robert Rope, Buffalo, N. Y., shown with DuBois, is A. A. U. champion of the Niagara district for the indoor and outdoor medley, 300 yards.

Misses Florence Woodruff, Oberlin, O., and Louisiana Fowler, Dayton, are both members of the American Red Cross Life Saving Corps and will enter the races for girls. The center picture shows a group of students in the pool where the aquatic events will be staged.

Events include: 50 yard free style for men; 50-yard breast stroke for men; 25-yard dash for women; 100-yard free style for men; 200-yard free style for men; 200-yard relay for men (four man teams); fancy diving; two compulsory dives two optional; novelty races; canoe tilting; in and out canoe race; hand paddled canoe race; fancy diving exhibition. Life saving exhibitions will also be given.

Prizes will be given to those who place first, second and third in each event on point system and Morton Grinnell, owner of the park will award a silver loving cup to the winner of the most points. Ribbons will be awarded by the college to first, second and third place winners.

Races will start at the dam and will be straight up the Little Miami River, so that spectators can watch the events from the shaded banks. The park thus adapts itself well for events of this nature, and so far has proven a popular mecca for students of the college and for picnic parties.

Mr. Grinnell has installed boats, bath houses, concessions and while preserving the natural beauty of the scene, has furnished entertainment for the youngsters with the addition of swings and other devices. The park is laid out on the opposite side of the river from the camp maintained by the Springfield Y. W. C. A. and the water carnival is the outgrowth of friendly rivalry which developed when the students sought the park for bathing during the recent hot weather. The college then decided to make it an annual affair.

AXE FOR SHIPPING BOARD

UNLESS all signs fail the Coolidge economy axe is about to fall on the Shipping Board. The President is determined that the annual $50,000,000 leakage through this top heavy inefficient organization must cease. Almost $3,500,000,000 of tax payers money has been spent by the Board since it was foisted on the public as a war measure by the Democratic administration. It must cease.

Every conceivable method has been used in an attempt to "sell it" to the public. It is manifest that the people will not "buy it" at the price demanded. They might as well buy the cantonments or some of the other junk which became a national liability on the day following the armistice. Congress apparently has never been able to bring itself to the point of scrapping vessels which cost hundreds of millions to build despite the fact that they are costing more millions to guard while rusting away in the Hudson and the York Rivers, without the slightest possibility of ever returning the tax payers a dollar.

The President is now determined that this tragedy shall be determined and he may be relied upon to make the best possible arrangements for salvaging what is of value and of junking the remainder.

COMMENDING THE FAITHFUL WORKER

FOR 38 years Bernard Jedding of Battle Creek, Mich., has worked for Uncle Sam. Day in and day out, the record tells us, Jedding has served faithfully in all kinds of weather. Yet to Jedding, going his humble rounds as a mail carrier, the government has been largely a name, an impersonal somebody whose seat is at Washington. But now, after a trip to the capital, Uncle Sam is a real personality to Jedding.

As a reward for his faithfulness on the same route all these years, the people Jedding has served in Battle Creek paid his way to Washington, that he might see the wheels go 'round at first hand. The Jeddings—father, mother and son—have had a great time. Postmaster General New called Jedding into his private office and told him that Uncle Sam was proud of him. A day later, President Coolidge himself told Jedding, "I am glad to shake hands with you. You have made a record of which you have a right to be proud. The service needs men like you."

Many of us have the same mental picture of government that Jedding had, before his trip to Washington. We vision it as something aloof, inclined to be austere and unbending, devoid of personality in large measure—in brief, a machine. We forget that government is a man-made convenience, to enable us to live better together. The government, it must be admitted, too often lacks the personal touch. That is perhaps too much to expect in an organization such as is required to function for 100,000,000 people.

But it is good for the whole country that a bit of sentiment should show itself in the government, now and then. It does not hurt the machinery a particle for the chief engineer and one of his first lieutenants to pause a moment to praise the faithfulness and devotion to duty of men like Bernhard Jedding. We need to realize that flesh and blood and spirit are back of the governmental machinery we have set up to serve us.

ADVERTISING.

IMPORTANT lessons are quite often briefly told. Witness the following story from a Rotary Club paper: "What ruined your business?" a Rotarian was asked. "Advertising," he replied. "How's that?" "I let my competitors do it." This is so pointed that no high sounding moral need be affixed to the bottom to explain the meaning back of the joke.

Advertising is like labor. All the people employed in your competitors store do not help you. It is only when you make advertising work for you that you learn its real worth.

And advertising is one employe that cannot be fired. A patent medicine company which employed advertising years ago, eventually dropped advertising from the pay roll. That is why you would not know the name of the patent medicine if it was told you now. For when advertising walked out the door bankruptcy walked in.

WHEN THE TASK IS ENDED

When the task is finished, happy those who say:
"He we cherished as a baby is a man today!"
She who was our little girl is a woman true.
Sin and shame have harmed them not.
We have brought them through.

When the task is ended, in the setting sun
Are must sit and rest awhile, pondering all it's done;
Then the child who is a man and the

daughter fair
Pay with pride and happiness for their years of care.

There's no glory like to this, there's no gift from fame
Which excelleth children grown, worthy of their name!
Strive for fortune as you may, but as time shall go,
If with joy your age shall shine, they shall make it so.

Here's the summit of success, when the race is run;
Not the wealth which you have gained, but the tasks you've done.
But at last to sit and see, all your babies grown,
Sturdy men and women true, fit to stand alone.

LET US HOPE THERE WON'T BE ANY CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS TO THIS WAR

"Scotch: I would appreciate a recipe for Wholewheat Bread."

Answer: Wholewheat Bread: Into a large bowl put two cups of scalded sweet milk, one-fourth cup of granulated sugar and one teaspoon of salt; let cool till the milk is lukewarm, then add one cake of compressed yeast which has been dissolved in one-fourth cup of lukewarm water. Also add three cups of wholewheat flour and beat well; add one and one-third cups more of wholewheat flour, stir vigorously, and cover the bowl with two clean cloths. Set it in a warm place for five hours, or till the dough is double in bulk.

Now, without turning it out onto a bread board, as one does in making white bread, merely scrape half of it into one greased bread pan and the other half into another pan. Cover these pans and place them in a warm place for perhaps an hour, or till the dough is again double in bulk. Bake for 45 minutes in a moderate oven.

Young Housewife: "How is one to make blacking stay on a steel-topped range?"

Answer: Never try to black a steel-topped range. Nothing will stay on it, and nothing is supposed to be applied. Simply clean the steel with the finest grade of steel wool, which you can buy at any grocer's or hardware store. This is all the care it needs.

PRICE

There is a monument erected in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York to Edgar Allan Poe. And here is the inscription on it: "He was great in his genius; unhappy in his life; wretched in his death. But in his fame he is immortal."

When I read that inscription, those beautifully tragic lines of the poet himself arose as though in full view in golden letters:

"... the wind came out of the night
Chilling and killing my Annabel Lee."

I was reading last night in a book about another genius, Lafcadio Hearn, where he tells of only earning $100 during a period of more than ten months! I thought of the day when I witnessed the sale of the first edition of one of Hearn's early books for exactly $100. And I thought of his starved body, of his wanderings—almost sightless—over half the world, tossed about and little appreciated.

But today there isn't a spot where these two unhappy mortals sat or wrote or worked that isn't made note of and which countless thousands do not honor and respect.

Immortality is bought the same as all things are bought. But with genius there is no bargaining.

Happiness isn't handed down as it is the sunshine. You suffer for it. It comes no other way.

Its germ, however, is in everything beautiful.

The minor digs for the gold and silver, and unearths the diamond, but he feels his day's work done when his product is passed on. His lame back has had its reward. He knows what it is to be happily tired. It's the same as being honestly tired.

It was Lowell who once wrote that it was Heaven alone which was given away!

We have to pay for everything else.

SUMMER TERM JUNE 22, AUGUST 1

ENROLL AT STUDIO SATURDAY OR MONDAY

ANGLERS PROCURE LICENSES AS BASS SEASON IS OPENED

Forty-three followers of Izaak Walton, young and old, procured the new anglers' licenses in the first distribution Saturday and Monday in the office of Harvey Elam, clerk of courts.

With the bass season on in full swing Tuesday, fishermen streamed in and out of the office in the Court House for licenses Monday.

Although there has been a great number of applicants, the first supply of licenses has not yet been exhausted.

The youngest applicant was Edward Miller, 19, student, of Xenia and the oldest C. N. Smith, 84, retired, Jamestown.

Under the provisions of the new anglers' law all persons above the age of eighteen, fishing with "rod and reel," must first obtain licenses to fish in Ohio streams. Those who confine their fishing to their own ponds, lakes or streams are exempt.

Tuesday was the opening day of the bass season. The season begins June 15 and continues to April 30 inclusive. Black bass less than eleven inches in length, calico or blue fish less than five inches in length may not be taken in either of the fishing districts of the state.

According to the fish and game laws of Ohio, a person is prohibited from taking more than twelve black bass in one day.

Due to the muddy condition of the streams, fishermen do not expect much luck for several days. The Little Miami River to Massie Creek above Treblein has experienced but slight rainfall while the condition of the river below Treblein to Caesar Creek and Anderson's Fork is muddy.

BOYS AND GIRLS ON ANNUAL PICNIC

Escorted by club leaders and parents, between 150 and 200 members of boys' and girls' clubs of Greene County, held the annual club rally and inspection tour in Springfield, Tuesday.

The large crowd was conducted around the city by the Clark County Farm Bureau members. The girls visited Wren's store, the boys inspected Crowell's plant, the Buckeye Incubator Company and the American Seeding Machine Company.

A baseball team featured the club rally at Snyder Park. In the afternoon, between the Clark and Greene County teams, a picnic dinner was enjoyed and the remainder of the afternoon, spent at the park.

County Agent Ford S. Prince accompanied the crowd on the tour.

MRS. FRANCES HART CALLED SUDDENLY

Suffering a sudden heart attack while sitting conversing Monday evening, Mrs. Frances Hart, 78, passed away at her home on Home Avenue. She had been talking with her housekeeper when the sudden attack occurred and she died a short time after a physician reached the house.

Mrs. Hart was the widow of John A. Hart, who died thirty years ago. She spent her girlhood in this city

LAUNDRY OPERATOR CLOSING BUSINESS

Frank Yee, laundryman, with place of business in the Dakin Bldg., West Market Street, closed his laundry Monday and left Xenia.

Yee complained to police and city officials last week that he had received anonymous letters threatening his life because of operating a business here. Yee was unable to furnish sufficient evidence on which police could act nor could he swear out affidavits. Difficulty is said to revolve around an agreement of Chinese merchants that permits laundries to be operated according to population ratios.

Private funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 4:40 o'clock, at the home, with interment in Woodland Cemetery.

MIDDLETOWN GOLF TEAM TO PLAY HERE

Twenty-five men golfers of the Xenia Country Club will meet a like number representing the Middletown Golf Club in Xenia's first inter-city golf match of 1925 over the local course Wednesday afternoon.

The participants in the match will be divided into foursomes and the first foursome is scheduled to tee off in the afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, others following at short intervals. The play will be Nassau count, eighteen holes. Luncheon will follow the match for the golfers at the club house.

Xenia was successful in its various inter-city matches last year and hopes to repeat its success on the links this year beginning with the Middletown match.

EAST HIGH NOTES

The East High Alumni reception last Friday evening was one of the most successful and enjoyable in the history of the association. The following program was rendered: Invocation Rev. Hutchison; Welcome Address to class by R. O. Rickman; Response, Miss Ogretta Tyler, "An Irish Stew," a one act comedy under the direction of Miss Bolden. After the program the guests repaired to the dining room and at beautifully decorated tables were served a two course supper which reflected much credit to Mrs. Eva Love, chairman of the refreshment committee. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

Everywhere this New Delco-Light has won an Instant Welcome

A month ago we announced a new Delco-Light electric plant—Delco-Light at a new low price—Delco-Light so inexpensive in cost that it could bring the blessings of electricity to every farm home in America.

Thousands of farmers have found, in this new Delco-Light, the thing they've always wanted—a genuine Delco-Light plant that they could have, completely installed on their farms, at a cost that was really low. Thousands of farm women have found the Delco-Light that would lighten their burdens and bring new happiness to their families—all at a very economical cost.

We Want You to Know About It

Here is a brief description of the new Delco-Light, and some general information about our remarkable new plan of complete installation and easy time payments. Read every word of this information. And then write or telephone immediately for the details of our complete offer.

A 600-Watt Non-Storage Battery Plant

The new plant is a genuine Delco-Light in every respect—full 600-watt capacity, strong, sturdily built, economical in operation. It is equipped with a standard Delco starter and an economical starting battery. And its price is only $195 f. o. b. Dayton—the lowest price and the greatest value ever offered in a Delco-Light electric plant.

Complete Installation at a Remarkably Small Cost

In addition to this, special arrangements have been made whereby the Delco-Light Dealer in your community will install your plant and wire your house for five lights to be located wherever you specify. You will receive with the plant five beautiful spun-brass lighting fixtures complete with bulbs.

And all of this—plant, installation, wiring, fixtures, everything ready to turn on the lights—will cost you only $53, in addition to the price of the plant itself.

A Small Down Payment—Balance on Easy Terms

Finally, we have arranged that this new low cost for Delco-Light, completely installed, can be paid on terms so easy that anyone can take advantage of them. The total cost is only $248, including freight (a little more west of the Mississippi). But you make only a small down payment. The balance is payable on easy terms, arranged to suit your convenience.

Ask for Details

Never before has such an offer been made. Never before has Delco-Light cost so little and been so easy to buy. It means that any farm home—your home—can have Delco-Light today.

At the bottom of this advertisement appear the name and address of the Delco-Light Dealer for your community. Call on him, write, or telephone for full information—specifications of the plant, illustrations of the fixtures that come with it, details of our complete installation and wiring plan and the figures that show how easily you can now get Delco-Light.

COURT NEWS

SUES IN ERROR

Albert Smith and Bruce Leveck, this city, convicted and fined on two charges each of recording wagers on race horses, have filed petitions in error in Common Pleas Court seeking to have the verdicts set aside and the judgments reversed.

Both Smith and Leveck were convicted of charges of gambling by juries in Probate Court and given heavy fines.

The petitions charge that the court erred in overruling their motions for new trials, in admitting prosecution evidence and in finding them guilty. A reversal of the judgments is asked.

Attorney Charles L. Darlington, who represented Smith and Leveck in their cases, filed the four petitions.

Health Hints

by the Father of Physical Culture

BERNARD MACFADDEN

Only a little self-denial (which quickly becomes a pleasure) is required of a girl who would make herself attractive. When the terms "beauty" and "health" become synonymous in her mind, to attain her object she will be willing to sacrifice some pleasures of the lower senses-such as comes from eating chocolate creams, the absorbing of unlimited ice-cream sodas, lobster and oyster suppers, and rich animal food in general. She will then no more dream of swallowing harmful things than of wearing an unbecoming dress, or a hat which does not harmonize with her hair or complexion.

Nor will she be content with negative requirements alone. She will inaugurate a system of exercises at least ten to twenty minutes daily, followed by a cold bath, in addition to her walks and outdoor pastimes, for this is the best of all practices for keeping the blood pure and the internal organs clean and in perfect working order. Every famous beauty and every actress celebrated for her personal charm know this secret, and they faithfully persist in these morning exercises and cold baths for the sake of the resultant youthfulness and beauty that these impart to face and form.

The skin is one of the organs by means of which the body is relieved of waste. Its depurating action is unremitting and thus there is constantly exuded on the surface waste matter. Hence, unless frequently bathed, the skin suffers in appearance, firstly by reason of its uncleanness; secondly, becoming clogged up, the wastes are not readily eliminated from the blood, which becomes impure. In consequence the whole system suffers, the skin taking on a yellowish tinge, and the complexion becoming dull and sallow and coarsened by enlarged pores.

But, perhaps, one of the most valuable of baths for the skin, one that never fails to improve its texture and color, is a bath that does not require water, the friction bath. It stimulates the whipped cream to the skin.

CHAUTAUQUA PEOPLE TRAVEL BY BUSES SAYS ADVANCE MAN

Entertainers, musicians and lecturers appearing on this season's chautauqua program, July 12th to 18th inclusive, are traveling by automobile, according to the announcement of Paul J. Harris chautauqua's first advance representative, who arrived Thursday. For purposes of economy and convenience a fleet of sedan buses has been secured by the Red-path management, carrying chautauqua baggage, as well as passengers.

Governor Charles H. Brough of Arkansas and the Columbia Girls Quartet, scheduled for chautauqua's opening day, will travel in one of these buses. The company producing the grand opera "Faust" will have an entire bus for it use on chautauqua's second day. The comedy drama, "Not So Fast," will transport its cast, along with Dr. J. G. McMurtry, lecturer, in a large bus that will be driven by one of the members of the company.

Ruth Bryan Owen, daughter of America's celebrated commoner, is to drive her own sedan on chautauqua's fourth day, being accompanied by the Australian Artists and Charles W. Conson, lecturer. The company of eight people, appearing in the international play success, "So This Is London," will travel by sedan bus with Edward A. Marshall, landscape lecturer, as a companion passenger, on chautauqua's fifth day.

From Lincoln, Nebraska, comes the Eleanore Brass Choir, together with Jess Pugh, Indiana humorist, in a touring car for chautauqua's sixth day program. The Jackson Jubilee Singers, seven in number, and Hugh Fuller, offering a junior specialty which features his original impersonations, will use a touring car and two roadster-trucks for transportation of passengers and baggage on chautauqua's closing day.

The chautauqua circuit of which this city is a part covers approximately 5,000 miles in Ohio, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and northern Kentucky. The circuit extends from June 9 to September 1.

TAX COLLECTION PERIOD EXTENDED

Greene County Commissioners at the request of County Treasurer F. A. Jackson have granted a thirty day extension period in which tax payers in the county may pay their June settlements. The extension is from June 20 to July 20, and is the usual extension of time for the tax payers' convenience.

Treasurer Jackson announced however, that July 20, will be the final date as no more extensions will be granted, and residents that are tardy will be placed on the delinquent list.

BRINGING UP FATHER

MICHAEL'S MARRIAGE

By MICHAEL

CHAPTER LXX.

Aunt Mary's enthusiasm over the mysterious chest rose with that of Lilah.

"Wire the lawyer today and have him ship it by air mail," she said, excitedly. "It'll get here in three days."

"But the chest weighs considerable, and it'd cost a fortune to ship it," Michael avered. "Besides, we'll be going back in a few days. It may not get here until after we leave."

Aunt Mary's jaw fell.

"Well, I don't see why I didn't know about it sooner," Lilah pointed. She directed herself to Aunt Mary: "Forget it! Isn't that just like a man?"

What was in the chest? They talked of nothing else that day. Jewels? Money? Laces?

The two women plied Michael with questions.

"How large is the box?"

"Oh, about two by four." He vaguely suggested with his hands a box of enormous size.

"Well, what does it look like might be in it?"

"A camel possibly. It's sand-colored."

"Don't be silly!"

More pondering.

"It must be something valuable."

"Yes," Michael admitted, "but all of her jewels and things were accounted for in the inventory made by Thurber as executor."

"Does he know what's in it?"

"I don't know—I don't think so. The key is in a sealed envelope."

"Maybe your mother told him what she put in the chest."

"Possibly."

"This is more interesting than the detective story I have been reading in Blood-Curdling Stories Magazine," Aunt Mary exclaimed. Her nerves were on edge.

"Well, all these speculations aren't getting us anywhere. We'll know what's in it as soon as we get back," Michael spoke as if he

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

COOLIDGE FORMALLY LAUNCHES ECONOMY PROGRAM OF '26-'27

Budget Director Requests
Department Heads to Meet June 22

Washington, June 16—President Coolidge today formally launched his 1926-1927 economy program, aimed at drastic cost cutting policies in government, which may be reflected in tax reduction in the sixty ninth congress.

At the president's direction, department heads were requested by Budget Director H. M. Lord to attend the annual meeting of the government's business organization on June 22.

Plans to secure greater efficiency and economy for the coming two years, will be outlined, according to Lord.

Coincident with the calling of the economy session, came indications of a clash in congress between the administration and advocates of tax reduction who feel government revenue can be cut more than $500,000,000.

While secretary of the treasury will submit no specific plan to congress and will avoid an open break on new legislation, he opposes revenue reduction exceeding $300,000,000. A greater cut would force the government to borrow money to meet expenses, experts said.

The treasury revealed that the surplus for 1926 will be approximately $250,000,000, compared to the preliminary $273,700,000 estimate.

Partially balancing this loss, however, was the probability that the 1925 surplus will exceed the estimate of $67,000,000 by $50,000,000.

The treasury is against a revenue cut greater than the surplus Mellon also opposes applying payments on foreign debts directly to tax reduction, holding that it is better economy to reach taxes indirectly by applying payments to the public debt. A charge of treasury policy would require an amendment to the law.

If taxes are reduced, rates must be levied so scientifically that the new bill will eventually increase revenue, officials said.

Mellon believes a cut in surtaxes to 15 or 25 percent will accomplish this end. Officials pointed out that in 1916 under low taxation there were 2,449 incomes of over $200,000 reported; in 1921 at the maximum tax reported the number was 472, while in 1923, a lower tax rates it went to 1,193.

The government reduced its operating expenses by $120,665,000, from July 1, 1924 to June 14, compared to the same period of 1923-1924. Ordinary expenses were $7,551,000 higher, but cut being due to reduced public interest.

The agricultural department increased its expenditures $26,528,000; the navy $14,971,000 and the war department $9,848,000. Led by the veterans bureau with $22,371,000, five departments cut expenses.

President Coolidge is expected to ask department heads to use the pruning knife to get under the $326,700,000 estimated costs for 1926, appropriations for which have already been made.

The president will fix a maximum expenditure for the government in 1927. The figure for 1926 was $1,000,000,000. Budget officials said ordinary expenses for 1927 probably would exceed 1926 by $50,000,000.

Government revenues under the 1924 revenue act will be higher than was expected. Receipts for eleven and a half months were $1,420,000,000 with not all the estimated $33,000,000 June collection included. Income tax receipts will exceed the $1,660,000,000 estimate.

ATTORNEYS AMONG WITNESSES NAMED J IN KIRBY HEARING

Cleveland, O., June 16—Eugene Quigley and Amos Burt Thompson, Cleveland lawyers, were among the witnesses scheduled for examination in the trial of Josiah Kirby, former head of the Cleveland Discount Company on charges of embezzlement and larceny in common pleas court here today.

Details of how the concern was operated, methods of stock selling and the like were laid before the jury yesterday.

That the case will go to a jury decision was made certain yesterday when Judge Wolf presiding, held that shares of stock were "things of value" under the statutes of Ohio and hence could be embezzled. Defense attorneys had moved to quash the indictment upon the grounds that they were not "things of value" within the purview of the law.

ROTARY PRESIDENT FLAYS INTOLERANCE AT OPENING SESSION

Urges Unselfish Service As
Panacea For World Ills At
Cleveland Meeting

Cleveland, O., June 16—What was construed as a direct reference to the Ku Klux Klan was contained in the presidential address of Everett W. Hill, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, opening the business sessions of the sixteenth annual convention of the Rotary International here today.

"The spirit of intolerance," Hill said, "has recently gripped the nations and successfully defied the exorcism of all true charity. Rising from dust wherein it has reposed since the expiration of the middle ages, it has come forth once more to vex the souls of men. For four years one half of the world's population was urged to hate, to main, to kill. We find in the ghastly backwash of that tragic era the spirit of repression, of passion, of revenge."

"No matter how free may be the charter of a nation, it is no longer easy to gain a respectful hearing. No longer is the right of conscience freely conceded, no longer are the innate rights of men unchallenged. Into the markets and forum we have transplanted the bitterness of the camp and refuse too often to concede the right to a contrary opinion."

Hill urged the practice of "unselfish service" as the panacea for the ills suffered from a world drunk with hate and revenge.

Delegates from overseas Rotary clubs were presented from the platform at the first session today. There are thirty nations represented in the list of delegates.

The annual reports of the secretary and treasurer were presented and approved. At noon, luncheons in honor of Rotary district governors finishing their terms of office and for those who have been nominated for this office were held.

White House Cook Drafted for "Foreign Service" at Swampscott—Butler Will "Double in Brass" as Barber and Valet.

Washington, June 16—The White House brand of buckwheat cakes and two inch steaks will follow President Coolidge to his summer establishment at Swampscott, Mass., it was revealed today.

Julia Jongbloet, that cook extraordinary, whose culinary art, as displayed at the famous White House breakfast table is reputed to have won more than one re-calitrant member of congress over to the administration cause, has been drafted for "foreign service." When the president arrives at North Shore, next week, Mrs. Jongbloet will be installed in the kitchen of "White Court," and she will be only one of a considerable part of the White House staff especially imported to serve the executive and Mrs. Coolidge.

Attending to Mrs. Coolidge's wardrobe and other effects will be Katherine Gwynn, her personal maid. John Jay, elongated butler, will be "doubling in brass" as barber and valet to Mr. Coolidge.

Three miles away at Lynne, where the temporary executive offices are to be located, will be a highly efficient skeleton office force under the direction of Secretary to the President, Edward Sanders.

"Pat" McKenna, who knows and is known to every person of consequence, who has visited the White House since 1923, will be on hand to weed out the undesirables and to see that those whose business warrants are interviewed.

Present also will be Erwin Geisser, personal stenographer to the president and Miss Ellen E. Peck, stenographer to Edward T. Clark, the president's private secretary. Clark is planning to reach Swampscott later in the summer.

Handling the special telegraph wire that will link the Lynne office with the White House in Washington will be E. W. Smithers, chief operator at the executive offices here.

Major J. F. Coupal and Lieutenant Commander Joel T. Boone will be on hand to look after the health of the presidential party. Dr. Boone was with President Harding when he died and will be rebuilt at its present location immediately. The same type of station will be constructed with the exception of a basement, where the explosion occurred. The same business policy will be used.

WHERE O WHERE IS LITTLE DOG?

C. R. Hinkle, North Galloway Street, whose automobile was crushed under the falling roof of the Davis Oil Company filling station, Main and Galloway Streets, when it was demolished by a gas explosion Sunday, is looking for the little fox terrier that was in the car at the time of the blast.

The dog was in the tonneau of the car at the time of the explosion and when the car was crushed it was believed the dog was killed. When the wreckage of the station was cleared away however, the dog could not be found. Hinkle now believes the dog jumped or was blown from the machine and may be still running. He is anxious for information concerning the animal.

Sale of gasoline and oil will continue this week, since neither the pumps nor tanks underground were damaged, it is said.

The condition of Fremont Clark, attendant at the filling station, who is in Espey Hospital suffering from painful burns received when the blast demolished the station, was reported as much improved Tuesday.

TRAIN DERAILED WHEN ENGINE STRIKES RAIL SPLIT BY LIGHTNING

Victims Were On Way To Sail for Germany—Two
Coaches Leave Tracks in Midst of Heavy Storm
—Relief Rushed To Scene.

Hackettstown, N. J., June 16.—Twelve persons were killed and approximately fifty injured, several of them perhaps fatally, when a special five car train on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, speeding from Chicago to Hoboken, N. J., was derailed at Rockport, three miles from here, early today.

The victims were on their way to New York to sail this afternoon on the Republic, of the United States line, for Bremen, Germany.

The train struck a rail at Rockport that had been split by lightning an hour before. The engine and the two front coaches leaped the rails. The other three coaches remained on the tracks.

Relief trains, bearing doctors, nurses and all necessary paraphernalia were rushed to the scene from Dover, Hackettstown, Washington, N. J., and Easton, Pa.

ly and farmers and their wives, for miles around, came to Rockport in automobiles. Passengers in the coaches that remained on the tracks were unhurt, through some were badly shaken up and windows in the car broken.

The first eye witness story of the fatal crash was given International News Service by Miss Mabel White, daughter of Chief of Police L. C. White of Hackettstown, and one of the first to arrive at the scene.

"The scene was pitiable," she said. "Women, some of whom could not talk English, were going about in circles, wringing their hands and crying as if their hearts would break."

"Big, strong men, their husbands or friends, went about, patting them on the shoulders and trying to comfort them."

"One woman, whose child, a girl, was scalded to death, was inconsolable."

"The two front coaches and the engine had gone off the track. The windows of these coaches, both steel, by the way, were shattered and many of the injured were inside groaning. They were being treated by those who first got to the scene."

"I counted ten dead. Most of the dead were scalded as well as injured in the wreck."

"I had the presence of mind to take with me from Hackettstown a bottle of olive oil. I went through one of the windows of the overturned coaches and applied the oil to the burns of the injured."

"The injured were in terrible pain. They screamed and groaned. Passengers from the three coaches that remained on the tracks did all they could to help the injured. But as they were without medicine or bandages they were unable to give much assistance until after the first of the nurses and doctors arrived."

The wrecked train, according to some of the passengers was making fast time when the accident occurred.

One doctor said at 9:45 this morning that the death list would be greatly increased from twelve later, as some of the injured were in a critical condition.

The engineer of the train was killed outright. The conductor was so badly hurt it is feared he will die.

The first two coaches were filled with steam immediately after the impact, scalding many of the passengers.

The engine ploughed through the sand and dirt for thirty feet after it struck the switch. The two coaches immediately behind, piled up on top of the engine.

The killed included the engineer, fireman and brakeman of the train and a man, a woman and a child, passengers in the first car.

There were 152 passengers on the train.

The first coach piled on top of the engine, the second coach followed the first and lay crosswise on top of the heap and the third car, a sleeper, smashed into the wreckage ahead.

The wreck occurred during the height of the storm. Rain was pouring down. Lightning flashed and thunder boomed. Then came the smash.

At daylight, steam still poured from the broken pipes of the engine. Railroad workers and volunteer rescue workers searched among the wreckage for hours.

News of the accident spread rapidly.

STEVE PHILLIPS IS GIVEN BOUQUET BY FINDLAY, O., WRITER

Steve Phillips, Xenia race horse starter, was commended in a Findlay, Ohio paper following his capable handling of the racing events on the shortship circuit there last week. The article follows:

"It is generally admitted that the toughest jobs at a race meeting are those of the starting judge, the presiding judge and judges of the finish."

"Stephen G. Phillips, of Xenia, O., who has been starting horses for seven or eight years has always made a strong impression in Findlay in the way he gets his fields away, as well as in all other cities of the circuit and whenever he rings the gong."

"To please all the spectators all the time is well nigh an impossible task, but 'Steve' Phillips comes as close to doing that very thing as any judge who has ever worked races here."

"One reason for this is that he tolerates no 'monkey business' and all drivers, whether of grand circuit reputation or not, look alike to him when they score down. He plays the game squarely and horsemen everywhere respect him."

"Throughout the week, exceptionally large fields have featured, but not once has Judge Phillips failed to get them away to the satisfaction of all fair-minded spectators. He believes in 'fair play' and that is why he can return every year to the same cities of the short ship circuit."

LEONARD MAY COME OUT OF RETIREMENT TO MEET MICKEY WALKER IN AUGUST IS LEARNED

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
New York, June 16—Formal announcement was expected within a matter of weeks today that Benny Leonard has thought better of his hasty retirement from the wholesale and retail glove business following a series of protracted conferences between Jack Kearns and Billy Gibson. It was thought that the deliberations of these great minds had to do with a proposed Dempsey-Tunney meeting but it developed today that the subject under discussion was a bout between Leonard and Mickey Walker in August. Gibson, it is understood, has virtually given his word that Leonard will play along when the time comes. While non-active professionally for almost a year, Benny has kept himself in condition at his gymnasium where the tired business man may get his rest by running twenty laps around the track. The young man is said to be as sound physically as ever he was.

His mother, given credit in the record books for the decision over Benny that prompted his retirement from the lightweight championship and the ring in general, is also alleged to have been won over to the proposition. She can buy a lot of mental serenity with the quarter of a million that is believed will fall in Leonard's lap as a result of the deal.

The bout, next to the proposed Wills-Tunney transaction, is planned as the "big shot" of the 1925 outdoor season. It will fill any promoter with joy and the seats with cash customers.

It is such a form-fitting transaction, that, apparently Messrs. Kearns and Gibson have wasted little thought on Leonard's attitude.

"He's a business man," Kearns said today with a significant wink.

He and Gibson, it seems, are so far ahead of the proposition that they are haggling over the division of the purse. Both think they are entitled to the biggest drag and only a gradual modification of this laudable idea will bring them to an amicable conclusion.

This will probably take the form of a fifty-fifty split of approximately a half million dollars.

GOLFERS DISCUSS RULES AT MEETING AT COUNTRY CLUB

Approximately seventy-five men and women golfers, members of the Xenia Country Club, attended the meeting at the Club house Monday night, called by C. W. Murphy, chairman of the tournament committee to discuss rules and regulations in view of the pending inter-city matches with Middletown and Urbana.

Members engaged in formal discussion of the rules of golf etiquette and a number of revisions of the local playing rules were taken under consideration. No radical changes were advocated.

W. Crawford Craig, one of the foremost amateur golfers of the club, gave a short talk on rules, explaining both the regulations governing local play and international play. The board of directors held a short session following the meeting.

The Monday meeting was voted successful in every way as well attended.

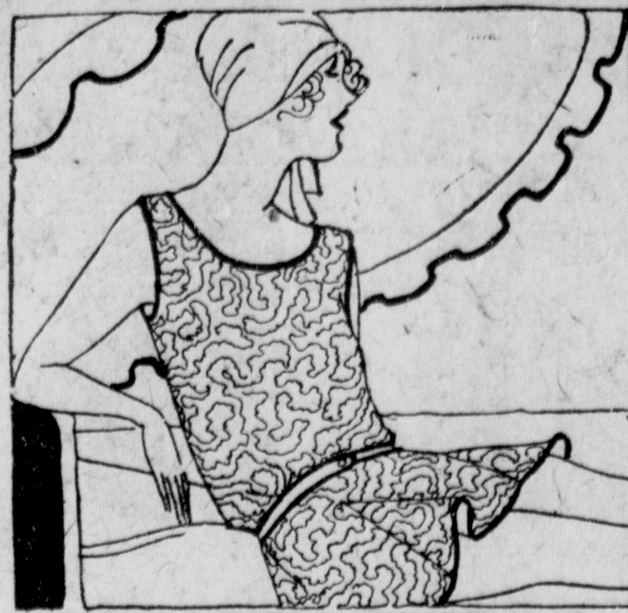

Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts of America, will hold its weekly meeting Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Joseph Foody Post, American Legion rooms, it is announced by Scoutmaster R. H. Kingsbury. MODISH MITZI—Mitzi Takes Her First Swim of the Season

By JAY V. JAY

Polly is our little family pessimist. She is very warm and comfortable at the moment and she is wondering whether her curiosity as to the probable coldness of the water is strong enough to call for action. Her suit is of printed gingham and follows the fashion by having godets in the skirt.

Eleanor has reached the first float and is deciding that she won't go any farther. Not of course because the water is cold—she is prepared to be quite scornful of Polly—but because this is a good vantage point from which to display her bathing suit of jade green charmeuse with its circular skirt with deep black border.

Adelaide is being Oriental this season. It's very likely that she will spend the entire summer without swimming at all because her beach coat is so striking. It is made of rubberized green silk and is cut like a Chinese coat. Her Japanese parasol is obviously the proper accessory.

Mitzi believes in being extreme. Her suit is the extreme of boyishness being a two-piece suit with trunks and a belt. Her beach cape and cap are the extreme of brilliance being made of a flowered silk, rubberized. She has just been extremely brave and taken her first plunge.

ANTIOCH SWIMMING STARS TO HOLD FIRST ANNUAL AQUATIC MEET

Florence Woodruff, Louisiana Fowler Group of Antioch Students Robert Rope, Arthur DuBois

Antioch College, Yellow Springs, will hold its first annual water carnival at the Morton Grinnell Park, Grinnell Mills, south of Yellow Springs, Wednesday.

Both men and women students will compete in the program of events on the half-mile swimming course offered at the newly established park. Several of these are holders of swimming championships and medals, which heightens interest in the water sports.

Arthur "Duke" DuBois, shown above, won the New England Y. M. C. A. championship in 1921 and again in 1923 and was also an A. A. U. champion of Worcester County, Mass. Robert Rope, Buffalo, N. Y., shown with DuBois, is a A. A. U. champion of the Niagara district for the indoor and outdoor medley, 300 yards.

Misses Florence Woodruff, Oberlin, O., and Louisiana Fowler, Dayton, are both members of the American Red Cross Life Saving Corps and will enter the races for girls. The center picture shows a group of students in the pool where the aquatic events will be staged.

Events include: 50 yard free style for men; 50-yard breast stroke for men; 25-yard dash for women; 100-yard free style for men; 200-yard free style for men; 200-yard relay for men (four man teams); fancy diving; two compulsory dives two optional; novelty races; canoe tilting; in and out canoe race; hand paddled canoe race; fancy diving exhibition. Life saving exhibitions will also be given.

Prizes will be given to those who place first, second and third in each event on point system and Morton Grinnell, owner of the park will award a silver loving cup to the winner of the most points. Ribbons will be awarded by the college to first, second and third place winners.

Races will start at the dam and will be straight up the Little Miami River, so that spectators can watch the events from the shaded banks. The park thus adapts itself well for events of this nature, and so far has proven a popular mecca for students of the college and for picnic parties.

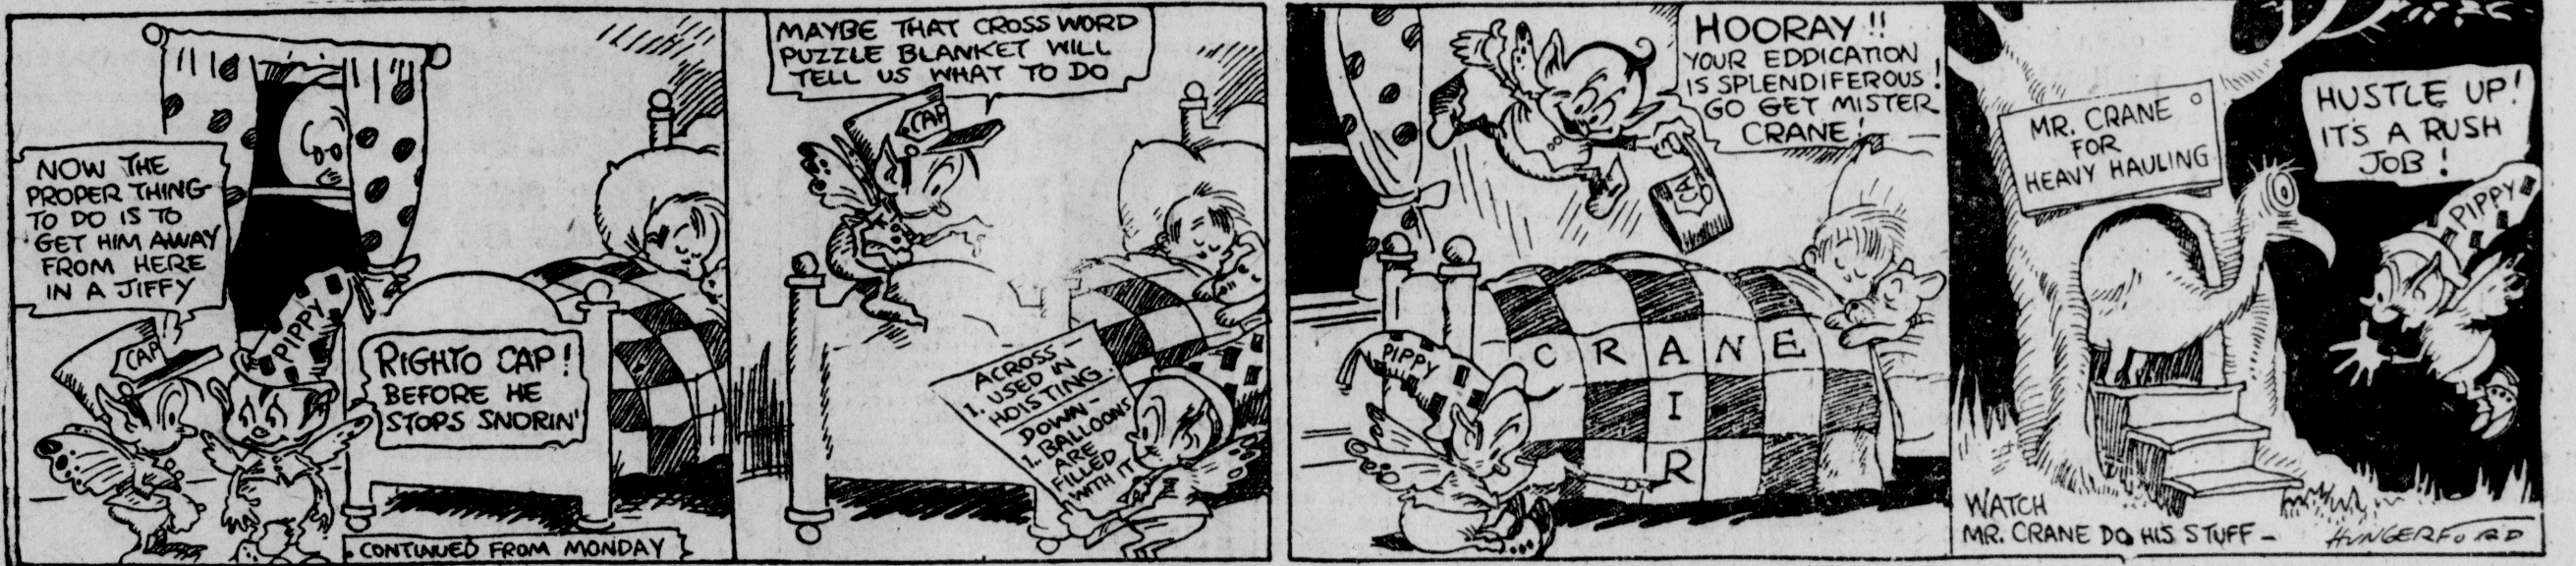

Mr. Grinnell has installed boats, bath houses, concessions and while preserving the natural beauty of the scene, has furnished entertainment for the youngsters with the addition of swings and other devices. The park is laid out on the opposite side of the river from the camp maintained by the Springfield Y. W. C. A. and the water carnival is the outgrowth of friendly rivalry which developed when the students sought the park for bathing during the recent hot weather. The college then decided to make it an annual affair.

AXE FOR SHIPPING BOARD

UNLESS all signs fail the Coolidge economy axe is about to fall on the Shipping Board. The President is determined that the annual $50,000,000 leakage through this top heavy inefficient organization must cease. Almost $3,500,000 of tax payers money has been spent by the Board since it was foisted on the public as a war measure by the Democratic administration. It must cease.

Every conceivable method has been used in an attempt to "sell it" to the public. It is manifest that the people will not "buy it" at the price demanded. They might as well buy the cantonments or some of the other junk which became a national liability on the day following the armistice. Congress apparently has never been able to bring itself to the point of scrapping vessels which cost hundreds of millions to build despite the fact that they are costing more millions to guard while rusting away in the Hudson and the York Rivers, without the slightest possibility of ever returning the tax payers a dollar.

The President is now determined that this tragedy shall be determined and he may be relied upon to make the best possible arrangements for salvaging what is of value and of junking the remainder.

COMMENDING THE FAITHFUL WORKER

FOR 38 years Bernard Jedding of Battle Creek, Mich., has worked for Uncle Sam. Day in and day out, the record tells us, Jedding has served faithfully in all kinds of weather. Yet to Jedding, going his humble rounds as a mail carrier, the government has been largely a name, an impersonal somebody whose seat is at Washington. But now, after a trip to the capital, Uncle Sam is a real personality to Jedding.

As a reward for his faithfulness on the same route all these years, the people Jedding has served in Battle Creek paid his way to Washington, that he might see the wheels go round at first hand. The Jeddings—father, mother and son—have had a great time. Postmaster General New called Jedding into his private office and told him that Uncle Sam was proud of him. A day later, President Coolidge himself told Jedding, "I am glad to shake hands with you. You have made a record of which you have a right to be proud. The service needs men like you."

Many of us have the same mental picture of government that Jedding had, before his trip to Washington. We vision it as something aloof, inclined to be austere and unbending, devoid of personality in large measure—in brief, a machine. We forget that government is a man-made convenience, to enable us to live better together. The government, it must be admitted, too often lacks the personal touch. That is perhaps too much to expect in an organization such as is required to function for 100,000,000 people.

But it is good for the whole country that a bit of sentiment should show itself in the government, now and then. It does not hurt the machinery a particle for the chief engineer and one of his first lieutenants to pause a moment to praise the faithfulness and devotion to duty of men like Bernhard Jedding. We need to realize that flesh and blood and spirit are back of the governmental machinery we have set up to serve us.

ADVERTISING.

IMPORTANT lessons are quite often briefly told. Witness the following story from a Rotary Club paper: "What ruined your business?" a Rotarian was asked. "Advertising," he replied. "How's that?" "I let my competitors do it." This is so pointed that no high sounding moral need be affixed to the bottom to explain the meaning back of the joke.

Advertising is like labor. All the people employed in your competitors store do not help you. It is only when you make advertising work for you that you learn its real worth.

And advertising is one employe that cannot be fired. A patent medicine company which employed advertising years ago, eventually dropped advertising from the pay roll. That is why you would not know the name of the patent medicine if it was told you now. For when advertising walked out the door bankruptcy walked in.

WHEN THE TASK IS ENDE

When the task is finished, happy those who say:
"He we cherished as a baby is a man today!"
She who was our little girl is a woman true.
Sin and shame have harmed them not.
We have brought them through.

When the task is ended, in the setting sun
Age must sit and rest awhile, pondering
all it's done;
Then the child who is a man and the

daughter fair
Pay with pride and happiness for their years of care.

There's no glory like to this, there's no gift from fame
Which excelleth children grown, worthy of their name!
Strive for fortune as you may, but as time shall go,
If with joy your age shall shine, they shall make it so.

Here's the summit of success, when the race is run;
Not the wealth which you have gained not the tasks you've done.
But at last to sit and see, all your babies grown.
Sturdy men and women true, fit to stand alone.

"Scotch: I would appreciate a recipe for Wholewheat Bread."

Answer: Wholewheat Bread: Into a large bowl put two cups of scalded milk, one-fourth cup of granulated sugar and one teaspoon of salt; let cool till the milk is lukewarm, then add one cake of compressed yeast which has been dissolved in one-fourth cup of lukewarm water. Also add three cups of wholewheat flour and beat well; add one and one-third cups more of wholewheat flour, stir vigorously, and cover the bowl with two clean cloths. Set it in a warm place for five hours, or till the dough is double in bulk.

Now, without turning it out onto a bread board, as one does in making white bread, merely scrape half of it into one greased bread pan and the other half into another pan. Cover these pans and place them in a warm place for perhaps an hour, or till the dough is again double in bulk. Bake for 45 minutes in a moderate oven.

Young Housewife: "How is one to make blacking stay on a steel-topped range?"

Answer: Never try to black a steel-topped range. Nothing will stay on it, and nothing is supposed to be applied. Simply clean the steel with the finest grade of steel wool, which you can buy at any grocer's or hardware store. This is all the care it needs.

Mrs. E. S.: "Kindly print a recipe for baking powder tea biscuits."

Answer: Baking powder manufacturers always print an excellent recipe on the paper cover of their cans. But here is another good one: Tea Biscuits:—With two knives (held together as if they were a pair of scissors) cut one heaping tablespoon of butter into one quart of bread flour which you have previously sifted with three tablespoons of baking powder, one teaspoon of salt, and one tablespoon of sugar. Add one-half pint of cold, sweet milk and mix well (it will make a soft dough). Then turn the mass out onto a slightly floured board and roll lightly to

There is a monument erected in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York to Edgar Allan Poe. And here is the inscription on it: "He was great in his genius; unhappy in his life; wretched in his death. But in his fame he is immortal."

When I read that inscription, those beautifully tragic lines of the poet himself arose as though in full view in golden letters:

"... the wind came out of the night Chilling and killing my Annabel Lee."

I was reading last night in a book about another genius, Lafcadio Hearn, where he tells of only earning $100 during a period of more than ten months! I thought of the day when I witnessed the sale of the first edition of one of Hearn's early books for exactly $100. And I thought of his starved body, of his wanderings—almost sightless—over half the world, tossed about and little appreciated.

But today there isn't a spot where these two unhappy mortals sat or wrote or worked that isn't made note of and which countless thousands do not honor and respect.

Immortality is bought the same as all things are bought. But with genius there is no bargaining.

Happiness isn't handed down as is the sunshine. You suffer for it. It comes no other way. Its germ, however, is in everything beautiful.

The minor digs for the gold and silver, and unearths the diamond, but he feels his day's work done when his product is passed on. His lame back has had its reward. He knows what it is to be happily tired. It's the same as being honestly tired.

It was Lowell who once wrote that it was Heaven alone which was given away!

We have to pay for everything else.

ANGLERS PROCURE LICENSES AS BASS SEASON IS OPENED

Forty-three followers of Isaac Walton, young and old, procured the new anglers' licenses in the first distribution Saturday and Monday in the office of Harvey Elam, clerk of courts.

With the bass season on in full swing Tuesday, fishermen streamed in and out of the office in the Court House for licenses Monday.

Although there has been a great number of applicants, the first supply of licenses has not yet been exhausted.

The youngest applicant was Edward Miller, 19, student, of Xenia and the oldest C. N. Smith, 84, retired, Jamestown.

Under the provisions of the new anglers' law all persons above the age of eighteen, fishing with "rod and reel," must first obtain licenses to fish in Ohio streams. Those who confine their fishing to their own ponds, lakes or streams are exempt.

Tuesday was the opening day of the bass season. The season begins June 16 and continues to April 30 inclusive. Black bass less than eleven inches in length, calico or blue dills less than five inches in length may not be taken in either of the fishing districts of the state.

According to the fish and game laws of Ohio, a person is prohibited from taking more than twelve black bass in one day.

Due to the muddy condition of the streams, fishermen do not expect much luck for several days. The Little Miami River to Massies Creek above Treblein has experienced but slight rainfall while the condition of the river below Treblein to Caesar-creek and Anderson's Fork is muddy.

NAME COMMITTEES FOR WILBERFORCE AT BOARD MEETING

The appointment of standing committees for the coming year featured the Tuesday morning session of the annual trustee board meeting of Wilberforce university. The meeting will continue through Tuesday, Wednesday and part of Thursday.

The committees appointed are as follows:
Finance: C. P. Cole, H. E. Wilson; resolutions: Miss Mary E. Evans, the Rev. Mr. Giles and the Rev. T. W. Woodson; teachers: Bishop W. T. Vernon, Bishop George Gaines, the Rev. H. Y. Arnett, T. D. Scott.

Buildings and grounds: Bishop W. Beckett, the Rev. Charles E. Stewart, president's address; Bishop George Gaines, the Rev. H. E. Stewart, Miss Mary Evans; Ways and means: Bishop William Heard, the Rev. Charles Bundy, Miss Effie Carter; Seminary, T. J. Askew, J. P. Maxwell and B. U. Y. Taylor.

A telegram was received at the university Tuesday morning, announcing the death of Bishop William D. Chapelle, Columbia, S. C., former trustee of Wilberforce. He was elected bishop a number of years ago, in Kansas City Mo., and was active in A. M. E. work. He was former president of Allan University, at Columbia, S. C., and was bishop of a South Carolina church district. His funeral will be held on Thursday.

The Bishops' Council, which usually is held annually at Wilberforce will be in session this year in Los Angeles Calif., which is keeping a number of the prominent church workers from the local university commencement.

The Los Angeles session is in the nature of a union meeting of the bishops of the A. M. E. Church and the A. M. E. Zion body, with a probable move to unite the two bodies.

President Gilbert H. Jones submitted his annual report and recommendations for the election of teachers at the trustee meeting, Tuesday afternoon.

MISS POPE ADMITS PACT WITH HEIRS

Chicago, June 16—Miss Isabelle Pope, fiancée of "Billy" McClintock, today admitted under cross examination in the trial of William D. Shepherd, accused of murdering Billy, that she had made an agreement with the heirs to the McClintock estate that if young McClintock's will was broken, she and they were to share on an even basis. She said that it was agreed Mrs. Shepherd would be taken care of.

MATTHEWS DAMAGE CASE DISMISSED

The $25,000 damage suit of Mrs. Mary Matthews, administratrix of the estate of Elvas Matthews, deceased, against Louis Vandervoort, has been dismissed with prejudice, according to an entry filed in Common Pleas Court.

It is understood that the case has been settled out of court and a compromise effected.

The suit for damages, growing out of the alleged shooting to death of Patrolman Elvas Matthews, husband of the plaintiff, never came to trial but has been pending since February, 1923 when it was filed.

Attorneys F. L. Johnson and C. L. Darlington represented Mrs. Matthews while Attorney L. T. Marshall represented the defendant.

ROTARY CLUB HEARS RICE DESCRIBE TRIP

Harry E. Rice, Xenia newspaperman, who accompanied the United States fleet on the cruise to the Hawaiian Islands this spring, told of the events of the trip at the meeting of the Xenia Rotary Club, Tuesday noon at the Elk's Lodge.

His description of the sea voyage was graphically given and the affairs that he attended at Honolulu were also interestingly described.

Rotarians made arrangements at the meeting to entertain the Xenia Boy Scouts at a steak roast, at Old Town, next Tuesday evening.

The announcement is of interest to Miss Thomas' number of friends here. She is a sister of Mrs. Anell Wright of Cedarville, who attended the announcement party.

BOYS AND GIRLS ON ANNUAL PICNIC

Escorted by club leaders and parents, between 150 and 200 members of boys' and girls' clubs of Greene County, held the annual club rally and inspection tour in Springfield, Tuesday.

The large crowd was conducted around the city by the Clark County Farm Bureau members. The girls visited Wren's store, the boys inspected Crowell's plant, the Buckeye Incubator Company and the American Seedling Machine Company.

A baseball team featured the club rally at Snyder Park. In the afternoon, between the Clark and Greene County teams, a picnic dinner was enjoyed, and the remainder of the afternoon, spent at the park.

County Agent Ford S. Prince accompanied the crowd on the tour.

MRS. FRANCES HART CALLED SUDDENLY

Suffering a sudden heart attack while sitting conversing Monday evening, Mrs. Frances Hart, 78, passed away at her home on Home Avenue. She had been talking with her housekeeper when the sudden attack occurred and she died a short time after a physician reached the house.

Mrs. Hart was the widow of John A. Hart, who died thirty years ago. She spent her girlhood in this city and after Mr. Hart's death in Chattanooga, Tenn., she returned to Xenia to reside.

She lived with her brother, A. R. Crandall, who was an invalid for a number of years and who preceded her in death only a few weeks.

Mrs. Hart was affiliated with the Episcopal Church. She was accomplished in a literary way and was widely read, taking interest in all events until her death. She was the last member of her immediate family, several cousins living in distant cities.

Private funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 4:40 o'clock, at the home, with interment in Woodland Cemetery.

MIDDLETOWN GOLF TEAM TO PLAY HERE

Twenty-five men golfers of the Xenia Country Club will meet a like number representing the Middletown Golf Club in Xenia's first inter-city golf match of 1925 over the local course Wednesday afternoon.

The participants in the match will be divided into foursomes and the first foursome is scheduled to tee off in the afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, others following at short intervals.

The play will be Nassau count, eighteen holes. Luncheon will follow the match for the golfers at the club house.

Xenia was successful in its various inter-city matches last year and hopes to repeat its success on the links this year beginning with the Middletown match.

LAUNDRY OPERATOR CLOSES BUSINESS

Frank Yee, laundryman, with place of business in the Dakin Bldg., West Market Street, closed his laundry Monday and left Xenia. Yee complained to police and city officials last week that he had received anonymous letters threatening his life because of operating a business here. Yee was unable to furnish sufficient evidence on which police could act nor could he swear out affidavits. Difficulty is said to revolve around an agreement of Chinese merchants that permits laundries to be operated according to population ratios.

Miss Mary Davis, Cincinnati Ave. Mass., is confined to her home with an attack of grip.

EAST HIGH NOTES

The East High Alumni reception last Friday evening was one of the most successful and enjoyable in the history of the association. The following program was rendered, singing America by association; Invocation Rev. Hutchinson; Welcome Address to class by R. O. Rickman, Response, Miss Ogretta Tyler, "An Irish Stew," a one act comedy under the direction of Miss Bolden. After the program the guests repaired to the dining room and at beautifully decorated tables were served a two course supper which reflected much credit to Mrs. Eva Love, chairman of the refreshment committee. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

CHAUTAUQUA PEOPLE TRAVEL BY BUSSES SAYS ADVANCE MAN

Entertainers, musicians and lecturers appearing on this season's chautauqua program, July 12th to 18th inclusive, are traveling by automobile, according to the announcement of Paul J. Harris chautauqua's first advance representative, who arrived Thursday. For purposes of economy and convenience a fleet of sedan buses has been secured by the Red-path management, carrying chautauqua baggage, as well as passengers.

Governor Charles H. Brough of Arkansas and the Columbia Girls Quartet, scheduled for chautauqua's opening day, will travel in one of these buses. The company producing the grand opera "Faust" will have an entire bus for its use on chautauqua's second day. The comedy drama, "Not So Fast," will transport its cast, along with Dr. J. G. McMurtry, lecturer, in a large bus that will be driven by one of the members of the company.

Ruth Bryan Owen, daughter of America's celebrated commoner, is to drive her own sedan on chautauqua's fourth day, being accompanied by the Australian Artists and Charles W. Cookson, lecturer. The company of eight people, appearing in the international play success, "So This Is London" will travel by sedan bus with Edward A. Marshall, landscape lecturer, as a companion passenger, on chautauqua's fifth day.

From Lincoln, Nebraska, comes the Lieurance Brass Choir, together with Jess Pugh, Indiana humorist, in a touring car for chautauqua's sixth day program. The Jackson Jubilee Singers, seven in number, and Hugh Fuller, offering a junior specialty which features his original impersonations, will use a touring car and two roadster-trucks for transportation of passengers and baggage on chautauqua's closing day.

The chautauqua circuit of which this city is a part covers approximately 5,000 miles in Ohio, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and northern Kentucky. The circuit extends from June 9 to September 1.

BRINGING UP FATHER

MICHAEL'S MARRIAGE

By MICHAEL

CHAPTER LXX.
Aunt Mary's enthusiasm over the mysterious chest rose with that of Lilah.

"Wire the lawyer today and have him ship it by air mail," she said, excitedly. "It'll get here in three days."

"But the chest weighs considerable, and it'd cost a fortune to ship it," Michael avered. "Besides, we'll be going back in a few days. It may not get here until after we leave."

Aunt Mary's jaw fell. "Well, I don't see why I didn't know about it sooner," Lilah pouted. She directed herself to Aunt Mary: "Forget it! Isn't that just like a man?"

"What was in the chest? They talked of nothing else that day. Jewels? Money? Laces?"

The two women plied Michael with questions. "How large is the box?"

"Oh, about two by four." He vaguely suggested with his hands a box of enormous size.

"Well, what does it look like might be in it?"

"A camel, possibly. It's sand-colored."

"Don't be silly!" More pondering. "It must be something valuable."

"Yes," Michael admitted, "but all of her jewels and things were accounted for in the inventory made by Thurbur as executor."

"Does he know what's in it?"

"I don't know—I don't think so. The key is in a sealed envelope."

"Maybe your mother told him what she put in the chest."

"Possibly."

"This is more interesting than the detective story I have been reading in Blood-Curdling Stories Magazine," Aunt Mary exclaimed. Her nerves were on edge.

"Well, all these speculations aren't getting us anywhere. We'll know what's in it as soon as we get back," Michael spoke as if he were bored. Lilah was athrill with thoughts of what might be in the chest. Here was romance indeed! "Oh, I can hardly wait."

"Why don't you telegraph the lawyer to open the box and tell you what is in it?" Aunt Mary suggested, with all of the enthusiasm of a woman discovering a new scandal story about her best friend.

"No! I'd rather open it myself! I'll write you all about it just as soon as I open it, Aunt Mary!"

Aunt Mary resigned herself to days and days of suspense. She was so affected by the chest that she referred to it in the first few words she said to some "young" people who came in that evening.

"I'll bet it's a book of advice to brides," one young man suggested. Lilah's jaw dropped a little.

Among the visitors was Harry Heisler, a young man they had met on a previous occasion. Michael liked him, and Lilah thought he was interesting. They were delighted when he suggested that they be his guests on a yachting party over the week-end.

"It's too bad we promised Paul Luph we'd go to his place for the week-end," Aunt Mary said, "because Harry has the finest yacht on the coast."

"It isn't nearly that," he laughed. "And it's second-hand."

Lilah shot a disappointed look at Michael. She had forgotten to ask Aunt Mary to call off the Luph party. She was enthusiastic over the prospect of taking a cruise on the ocean. Her experience as a voyager was limited to the hours she had spent in a canoe in the park lake back home.

"Can't we get Luph to let us come another week-end?" Michael suggested, moved by Lilah's eyes.

"Harry, invite Paul and Eloise Marshall to go along, and that'll settle the matter."

"Of course."

Michael glanced at Lilah and smiled.

Facts about Child-birth

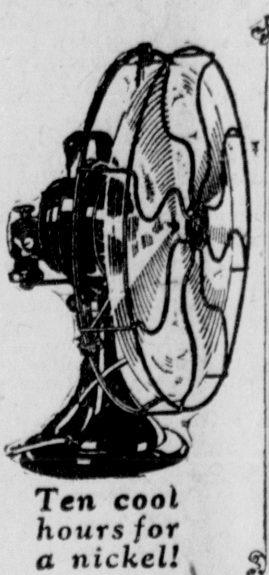

IT has been proven conclusively that much of the suffering, pain and dread experienced during expectancy, as well as at child-birth is entirely unnecessary.

An eminent physician, Dr. J. H. Holmes, expert in this science, first produced the great remedy "Mother's Friend," which aids the muscles and tissues to expand more easily, during the constant readjustment, month after month, right up to the climax of child-birth.

"Mother's Friend" is applied externally. Three generations of expectant mothers have used it. Pains disappeared in two days after using "Mother's Friend," writes a user.

"I owe my life to Mother's Friend," declared another. Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Start today and experience the wonderful comfort it will give you.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.
